Public Relations

Dear Monica,

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your assistance to the interdisciplinary advisory committee for the Forum on the Child. The Forum website has been amazingly successful (and beautiful!) and has generated interest above and beyond the Forum events. We hope to maintain the website and to update it, perhaps making it an interactive site for shared projects and ideas. As always, your professionalism and good sense made working with you a pleasure. Thank you. I have heard many good things about the Forum and felt the rewards of our hard work in the wealth of information presented and the shared good will.

We are beginning to plan the 1999 Forum on the Child and will once again be soliciting input from the university community. In addition, we are beginning the work of putting together the edited proceedings. Any ideas for these projects would be very much appreciated.

Thank you again for your commitment to this shared endeavor. I hope we have together made some impact on the quality of life of the urban child.

Sincerely,

Carol Harding
