

Licensed Physical Therapist Shane Bauer has been devoted to helping people heal and recover from pain for more than 20 years. In addition to studying physical therapy and earning his degree from Wisconsin's nationally ranked, flagship campus in Madison, he has continued to learn new techniques, driven by his desire to give patients the highest quality of care.

Education:

University of Wisconsin-Madison: Physical therapy, 1995

Certificates:

Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist: 1999
National Strength and Conditioning Association

Graston Technique Certification: 2009
TherapyCare resources, Inc.

Certified Dry Needling Specialist: 2013
Dry Needling Institute

Certified Spinal Manipulation Therapist: 2013
American Academy of Manipulative Therapy

Selective Functional Movement Assessment (SFMA) Certification: 2017
Functional Movement Systems.

Professional Associations:

American Physical Therapy Association: 1995-Present

Wisconsin Physical Therapy Association: 1995-Present